

REEN KEEPER AWARDS

END LITTERING

IMPROVE RECYCLING

BEAUTIFY COMMUNITIES

BEE CITY USA - HAMPTON

The Bee City USA-Hampton team of volunteers promotes a more beautiful city in which to live and play for humans and pollinators. Citizens and visitors are educated in how to create and sustain native pollinator habitats and the team also developed a certification program that encourages and recognizes citizens for planting more pollinator gardens.

Nominated by
Hampton Clean City
Commission

POSITIVE ENERGY, INC.

Positive Energy, Inc. has been a wonderful partner in organizing community based clean ups throughout the cities of Newport News and Hampton. Their efforts have brought multi-generational community and school groups together.

Nominated by
Newport News
Recycling Office

JEANNETTE SEAGRAVES

Jeannette (Nettie) Seagraves has expanded Clean City Commission partnerships, was key in spearheading a more active social media presence for the Commission, and has motivated the Commission to take a more active role in leading the community to keep our city clean.

Nominated by
Richmond Clean City
Commission

CHRISTINA TRAPANI

Christina Trapani has been the center of advocacy and all efforts locally to build awareness around the impact of plastic pollution and the Virginia Balloon Release Ban. Our region is so grateful as she is an inspiration for what one voice can do, as well as how a business can impact and entire community, region, and state.

Nominated by
Keep Norfolk Beautiful &
Keep Suffolk Beautiful

PEG BOARMAN

Peg Boarman has volunteered with James City County for 45 years, serving on the KJCCB Board and the Clean County Commission and leading the Annual County-wide Litter Cleanup, among many other programs and events.

Nominated by
Keep James City County
Beautiful

JOHN SAUNDERS & ANGELA AGEE

John Saunders has been a tireless road warrior litter hero who regularly cleans up litter throughout Frederick County and consistently reports his cleanup results.

Angela Agee has been a longstanding KVB volunteer who gives generously of her time to assist with several special events.

Nominated by
Keep Virginia Beautiful

Congratulations Award Winners!

END LITTERING

IMPROVE RECYCLING

BEAUTIFY COMMUNITIES

